

MEMRAMCOOK HAS MANY GEMS TO UNCOVER, AND REDISCOVER WITH THE CHANGING OF THE SEASONS.

In fact, the popular website The Culture Trip has designated the village as one of the 10 most beautiful villages in Canada.

Regardless of whether you are simply passing through on business or for pleasure, you will not be able to resist our village's charm and its breathtaking natural beauty.

Let yourself be carried away by our picturesque landscapes (meadows, marshes, rivers, orchards, tidal bores); by our exceptional fauna and flora; and by our unique cultural and historical heritage.

Attend shows and various activities presented by the Société du Monument-Lefebvre; the Société culturelle de la Vallée de Memramcook or under the "Airs d'été de Beaumont" series held at the Sainte-Anne-de-Beaumont Chapel Provincial Historic Site.

And what more can be said about the legendary hospitality of Memramcook's inhabitants, proud and welcoming people who created an unrivaled living environment.

ACTIVITIES FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

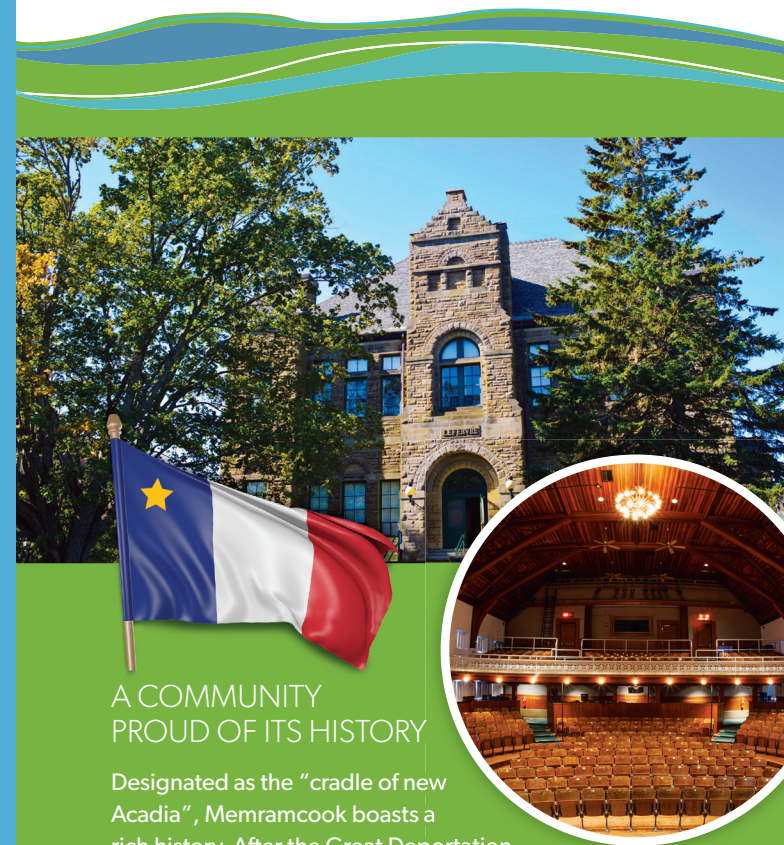

An always popular and very enjoyable activity, picking your own apples and small fruits at one of our local producers: Les Petits Fruits de Pré-d'en-Haut and Verger Belliveau Orchard which houses the Pomiculture Ecomuseum.

Golf lovers, come discover one of New Brunswick's most beautiful golf courses.

A VIBRANT COMMUNITY AND AN EXCEPTIONAL LIVING ENVIRONMENT

- 5,000 people spread out over 185 km²
- Envious recreational and sports facilities and high quality municipal services and infrastructure
- Monument-Lefebvre National Historic Site, symbol of the Acadian renaissance
- Many cultural, sporting and community events throughout the year
- A community school known for its exceptional creativity
- Green spaces, parks and walking trails to enjoy the many splendours of nature
- Many kilometers of dikes and several still-functioning aboiteaux, all bearing witness to a rich past
- Twenty or so local Canadian Historic Places
- The Société historique de Memramcook museum
- The Heritage Ecomuseum of Memramcook

A COMMUNITY PROUD OF ITS HISTORY

Designated as the "cradle of new Acadia", Memramcook boasts a rich history. After the Great Deportation of 1755, many Acadians settled here. In fact, many of their descendants went on to establish other communities, contributing thus to Acadia's survival.

The Monument-Lefebvre is a must-see as well as a great source of pride for the community. Discover a page of Acadian history by visiting the Acadian Odyssey Exhibit or by attending one of the shows at the Monument's theatre known for its outstanding acoustics.
